Gen. Raheel Sharif accuses India of stoking terrorism in Pakistan
ISLAMABAD: Pakistan and Kashmir are inseparable, and Kashmir is "an unfinished agenda of partition", Army Chief Gen. Raheel Sharif said on Wednesday. "While we wish for peace and stability in the region, we want Kashmir's just resolution in the light of UN resolutions and as per the aspirations of the Kashmiri people," Sharif told a conference at the National Defence University "While our enemies are supporting terrorism to stoke sub conventional conflicts and destabilize our country, we are fully determined, capable of defeating nefarious designs," Dawn online quoted him as saying. The army chief's comments follow a flurry of similar statements that India was involved in stoking terrorism in Pakistan. Parrikar expresses concern over arms sale to Pakistan NEW DELHI Defence Minister Manohar Parrikar on Wednesday expressed concern over arms sale to Pakistan, ahead of his meeting with visiting U.S. Defence Secretary Ashton Carter. "I will not comment on specifics but any arms sale to Pakistan is a concern to India," he told reporters in New Delhi. He was replying to a question about continued American sale of arms to Pakistan. He was also asked if this issue would be raised during his meeting with Mr. Carter later in the evening. The U.S. has given military hardware, including F-16 fighter planes, to Pakistan amounting to a whopping $ 5.4 billion since the 9/11 terror attacks, according to a latest Congressional report. But most of the arms and equipment supplied to Pakistan have been those which could be used for conventional war with India.
